SELL GOODIES IN AID OF REFUGEES

A booth on Main St. operated by members of the junior department of Trinity United Sunday-school netted $6.50 for the refugee fund. In the top picture are some of the workers: (left to right) Patricia Parker, Irene Faren, Betty Skinner, Betty Stephens, Billy Gilroy, Eileen Jackson and Barbara Gilroy.

At the left appear Mrs. Norman Hopper (left), a teacher, and Mrs. H. E. Gilroy, superintendent of the department. The children and their parents made the delicacies offered for sale and the public co-operated willingly.

THORNS TAKE 45 MINUTES 6-5 DECISION

LAST-MINUTE FINISH GIVES CLOSE DECISION TO RURALITES
PLAY AT SHARON

The Newmarket softball girls lost to Thornhill six runs to five at Thornhill last night in one of the shortest games on record. It took just under 45 minutes to complete the best-played contest of the season to date. A double error committed by Vera Beckett and Margaret Hisey, which let in two runs, decided the game in favor of Thornhill.

Thornhill started the scoring with two runs in the first inning. Newmarket came back with one in the second and four in the third.

After getting one run in the last of the third, Thornhill, helped by the Newmarket error, cinched the game with a three-run display in the fifth.

Lois Manning, playing in centre field, stood alone in the list of stars because of a magnificent catch of a ball directed between Beckett and Phyllis Osborne. She came in on the dead-run from centre field, stabbed the ball and finally landed behind Lucy Andrews, who was catching for Newmarket. The fans cheered her to the echo for this effort.

Newmarket out-hit the Thornhill squad, but directed their shots to the wrong places. Marj. McCannan pitched a fast game and young Phyl Osborne played well.

Archibald and Foote, the Thornhill mound pair, showed plenty of what it takes.

Newmarket: Beckett, Doane, Andrews, Manning, McCannan, M. Osborne, Hisey, P. Osborne, Raymond.

Thornhill: Ness, Barlow, Foote, Snider, Hilliard, Riddell, Robillard, Clark, Archibald.

Explosion And Fire Force Three Into Lake, Are Rescued

GAS-FILLED CABIN IGNITED
WHEN ENGINE SWITCH TURNED ON

BOAT IS DESTROYED

N. L. Mathews, K. C., town clerk and solicitor, Miss Beatrice Lyons, Mr. Mathews' law partner, and Mrs. W. E. Lyons, Miss Lyons' mother, were forced to jump into the water at Georgian Bay when their motorboat caught fire on Saturday evening. Mrs. Lyons couldn't swim and clung to a rope until help came. Not a swimmer either, Miss Lyons kept afloat with difficulty, and Mr. Mathews, a fair swimmer, encumbered with his clothes, managed to keep afloat with the help of a buoyant cushion.

The fire occurred when Mr. Mathews turned on the switch of the engine motor. Apparently the cabin was filled with gas fumes. An explosion occurred, which was heard for miles, and blew the cabin to fragments. Mr. Mathews had his hair, eyebrows and eyelashes singed, and had one arm burned, but miraculously escaped otherwise uninjured from the mass of flames to the back of the boat.

The life-belts and fire-extinguisher were beyond reach in the cabin and the fire was approaching rapidly the stern, with its gas-tank, where the three were standing. Dazed, Mr. Mathews threw three buoyant cushions overboard. Then he and Miss Lyons helped Mrs. Lyons over and jumped in themselves.

Mr. Mathews struck out for the cushions, got one, but was unable to bring it back to the two women.

A fisherman on shore, 200 feet away, put out a boat immediately and reached Miss Lyons first, who clung to the side of the boat while the fisherman proceeded to Mrs. Lyons and finally got her into the boat with difficulty. Then he picked up Mr. Mathews, whose cushion was beginning to lose its buoyancy.

MISS B. E. LYONS

The accident occurred at Fisherman's Bay at Giant's Tomb. The party had gone fishing from Thunder Bay, where the Mathews and Lyons families have cottages. Mrs. Mathews had been unable to go, as she was showing a cottage to some prospective tenants, and fortunately Mr. Mathews had not taken his little daughter with him.

The motorboat, a valuable boat, purchased last year, belonging to the two families, was burnt to the water's edge and sank, a total loss.

"REDS" CROSS WITH LEAFS TO AID RED CROSS

LOIS MANNING MAKES AMAZING CATCH TO WIN PLAUDITS

HIT PLENTY BUT

Newmarket Redmen defeated Toronto Maple Leafs at Sharon last evening. The public paid to see such fun and the Red Cross got away with the money.

Special patron of the evening was Miss Margaret Coyle of Newmarket, who has been an invalid for five years. Miss Coyle is an ardent hockey fan. All the players, Leafs and Redmen, went and spoke to Miss Coyle in her car behind the back-stop, and the Leafs all left their autographs.

Miss Coyle was present through the thoughtfulness of a friend, a Newmarket lady, who remains anonymous.

Manager Hap. Day's boys met tough opposition under the shelter of Sharon temple. The temple was put up without nails, but Charlie Holmes' lads nailed enough of Gord Drillon's hot shots to give Newmarket a 7-6 victory.

The country boys put the famous Leafs back on ice in a ninth inning hair's-breadth finish that had the Red Cross' big crowd shouting themselves hoarse.

In the first two innings batters from both camps folded up one, two, three. Drillon and Broda battered for the Leafs.

Newmarket's first run was in the third when Tomblinson knocked the ball out of the park for a home-run. Newmarket had two more in the fourth, and the Leafs were still scoreless. The Leafs had only one hit off Glover up to this point.

To rest the spectators' eyes, the managers then changed the teams. Niles and VanZant took over battery duties for the Redmen. Jack Wright replaced Bulmer in left-field. Jack Luck replaced Speedy Giles at second. Jack Gibbons replaced Harvey Gibney at right-field.

Billy Taylor replaced William "Flash" Hollett at second base on the Leaf line-up. Phil Stein replaced Bucko McDonald at first. Hank Goldup supplanted Bob Davidson in centre-field.

Now the Leafs started. They scored one in the fifth, two in the sixth, two in the eighth and one in the ninth, the crowd giving them a good hand (and not a few of them secretly hoping that the proud Newmarket Redmen would take a trimming).

Reds were blanked in the fifth and sixth. In the seventh Trivett got on with a hit. Jack Wright dropped a bunt, which Horner miscued on. Jack Luck homered to right field to make the score 6-3.

Newmarket didn't do a thing in the eighth and when they came to bat in the second half of the ninth the Leafs had the score tied up at 6-6.

Peters got on and VanZant brought him home, and the Reds had defeated (but not trimmed) the Leafs.

Norman McLeod of Queensville at the mike made the game lots of fun with his predictions of disputes that never materialized, his introduction of the players and play-by-play description.

Chas. E. Cunningham, Newmarket, functioned behind the plate, and Fred McLeod (whose mistakes were explained away satisfactorily by brother Norman) was base umpire.

NEWMARKET BOYS JOIN HISTORIC COUNTY UNIT

Twenty Newmarket boys went to Toronto last evening to enlist in the Queen's York Rangers, machine-gun regiment, in which D. O. Mungovan, Newmarket, is an officer. This is a non-permanent militia unit.

The Newmarket boys made a smart appearance for the first night, and are regarded as a real acquisition for the regiment. They will go down every Wednesday evening, leaving by truck from Geer & Byers at 6.45 p.m. The unit will go to camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake for two weeks beginning July 29.

W. P. Mulock Takes Post Once Held By Famed Grandfather

SIR WILLIAM PROPHESES
SUCCESS FOR GRANDSON
IN BIG TASK

IS ONLY 43 YEARS

Appointment this week of William Pate Mulock, member for North York, as postmaster-general gave this riding the unique distinction of filling this cabinet post for the second time.

Sir William Mulock, grandfather of the present member, who as postmaster-general in the famous Laurier cabinet of "all the talents" forced penny postage on the British Empire, was overjoyed when he heard the news. Sir William was visiting a friend's summer home at Keswick when informed of the appointment of his grandson.

"I know he will be a credit to the post and to his country," declared Sir William.

William Pate Mulock is the youngest of the cabinet ministers, 43 years old, having been born July 8, 1897, in Toronto, son of William Mulock, K.C., and grandson of Right Hon. Sir William Mulock, retired Chief Justice of Ontario.

A graduate of the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall, Mr. Mulock is associated with a Toronto law firm and operates a fruit farm at Armitage. He served with a Canadian ammunition company in the Siberian expeditionary force.

He was first elected to the House of Commons in a by-election Sept. 24, 1934, and was returned in the general elections of 1935 and 1940.

Thirty-one years ago this summer Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier visited Sir William Mulock at Armitage. Sir Wilfrid, then Canadian prime minister, was much taken with Sir William's grandson, a lad of 13.

"I want you to promise that when you grow up you will run as Liberal candidate in North York," said the Liberal chieftain to the youngster. "I will," the little chap replied.

Today that grandson, Hon. William Pate Mulock, M.P., is the youngest member of the Mackenzie King cabinet. Mr.

HON. W. P. MULOCK

Mulock assumed office on his birthday.

Asked how he happened to turn to politics and public affairs, Col. Mulock says: "I have never forgotten my promise to Sir Wilfrid Laurier."

"I have ideas, but I am not saying anything about them until I know all I can learn about my department," observed Col. Mulock. It is an open secret that one of his ideas concerns possible cheaper postage on parcels mailed to Canadian soldiers overseas.

"My business," he says, "is that of farmer. When you operate a 320-acre farm, 170 acres of it in apples, that is a business, not an avocation. My idea of fun is fishing."

One of the first things he did, after his cabinet appointment was announced, was to telephone Sir William Mulock and give him the news. Of the many congratulatory messages he received, the telegram the postmaster-general treasures most is the one from his grandfather.

"We are delighted that you have received an honor that is long overdue and well-merited," Joseph Vale, president of the Newmarket Liberal Association, telegraphed the minister.

Hannam Flies Back From West To Be Here Monday

YORK FARMERS PLAN FORM-ATION OF FEDERATION OF AGRICULTURE

The agricultural committee of York county council met on Monday to complete arrangements for the meeting to be held in Newmarket next Monday afternoon to consider organizing a county federation of agriculture. At the request of Chairman William Pugsley of Sutton, the members of the committee each reported on the response received from the organizations contacted.

As secretary, James Rennie, reeve of Markham, observed that it would seem that the farmers' organizations are 100 per cent behind the movement to weld together all groups under one head to present a united voice in the interests of agriculture. In fact, some of the societies in addition to electing delegates have authorized their delegates to make substantial grants to support the move.

It is proposed to set up a provisional board of directors to further develop the organization and make arrangements for a general meeting at a later date. The guest speaker, H. H. Hannam, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, is at present attending meetings of the federation in the prairie provinces and is returning by plane to be here for the York county meeting at 2 p.m., D.S.T., Monday, July 15. The secretary of the Ontario Federation, V. S. Milburn, has been asked to attend and lead the discussion following Mr. Hannam's address.

The members were reminded by Mr. Pugsley that the meeting is open to all farmers and urged his committee to endeavor to again contact the delegates from organizations in their districts.

Boy Saves Brother And Chum As They Struggle In River

THREE BOYS GO DOWN
TOGETHER IN TERRIFY-
ING STRUGGLE
TWO CAN'T SWIM

(By Era Correspondent)

Only by a miracle Melville Ley and Robert and Byron Brown escaped drowning in the Black River, close to Baldwin bridge, on Sunday afternoon.

The former two, unable to swim, got beyond their depth and went down in an unsuspected hole. Byron, who was doing stunts under the bridge, heard frantic screams from girls on the opposite bank. Pulling himself up he dove about six feet below the water and swam rapidly to their side. In the struggle the three went down. In some unexplainable way they eventually reached safety. The only explanation Byron can give is: "I didn't think I could save them. I don't know how I did it."

NORTH YORK PIONEER MARKS 89TH BIRTHDAY

Hale and hearty at 89 years, Charles F. Doane of Newmarket enjoyed to the full extent the surprise party that had been so carefully planned for him by his children and grandchildren at his home on Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was ideal, the sunshine and balmy air making it perfect for an outdoor picnic. The prettily decorated table was placed on the spacious lawn.

Mr. Doane received many lovely gifts, the more appreciated because of their unexpectedness.

The "picnic" turned out to be a "banquet," which included a delicious, gaily decorated and lighted birthday cake, which was deftly cut by the guest of honor.

Mrs. Doane, though not enjoying her usual good health, was able to be present for the afternoon, visiting with a neighbor who last year celebrated his 90th anniversary, and talking of the happy days long ago when they all settled on Yonge St.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Doane of Ottawa, Master Andrew Doane of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy, with their son and daughter, of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Gilbert and family of Aurora, Mr. Silas Armitage of Newmarket, Mr. E. Gilbert, Sr., and Mrs. Edith Winnett, of Aurora, and Mrs. B. Jones of Belleville were some of the out-of-town guests.

All were reluctant to leave, but carried with them a pretty picture of beauty and kind hospitality from one of North York's pioneer homesteads.

The Doane family has, down through the five generations, been well-known for its keen interest in every advanced science and industry, and they have been community builders.

Many friends have been wishing this grand old man many happy returns of this birthday and that his home may continue to be blessed with good health and happiness.

LIONS PLAN 1940 NIGHT OF CARNIVAL

The annual Lions club carnival will take place on Wednesday, Aug. 21, it is announced by Chairman Frank Courtney.

An electric refrigerator will be given away with the lucky admission ticket. The place will again be the Stuart Scott school grounds.

Assisting Mr. Courtney are Frank Bowser, Leo Cull, H. E. Lambert and W. R. Ewing.

SCOUTS COLLECTED CANS FOR REFUGEES

The Scouts and Cubs had a most successful paper collection last Saturday. They would like to thank the people of the town for their generous support, and especially Ross Howlett and Roadhouse and Rose for the loan of their trucks. This will be a great help towards the camp for the boys at Island Grove. There will be another collection in the fall.

The Scouts leave this Saturday for the first ten days at Island Grove. After they return, about 35 Cubs will be under canvas for the next ten days. Every precaution is being taken to make these two camps as safe as humanly possible.

Last week The Era stated that the Scouts had the previous Saturday collected canned goods for the camp. This was an error, as the Scouts were collecting food for the refugees, in common with other Scouts in Toronto and elsewhere.

They netted $34.05 for the refugee fund.

CAKE BEARS 80 CANDLES AS CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN AND GREAT-GRAND GATHER

An 80th birthday was celebrated on Saturday by a Main St. resident, Mrs. Frank Lloyd, a charming lady who has spent over 60 years in this town.

Main St. may be narrow but it is really a lovely street compared to the Main St. which Mrs. Lloyd remembers in the early years of her residence here.

"It was just a muddy street with board sidewalks, and you had to scrape off your shoes when you got across the street," she said.

Mrs. Lloyd does her own work and lives by herself at 7 Main St. She is not as well as she would like to be, but she gets out around and does her errands without too much difficulty.

On Saturday children and grandchildren planned a party at Mrs. Lloyd's home, and what a party it was, with 22 guests present, and 80 candles finding a place somehow on the handsome cake. Mrs. Lloyd received a

OFFERED GOVT.

Pickering College, idle during the summer months, has been placed at the disposal of the dominion government as a clearing-centre for refugees, or alternatively is available for temporary use by an English school wishing to remove to Canada.

With regard to the second offer, Headmaster Joseph McCulley, who is president this year of the Headmasters' Association, told The Era that this organization has been in touch with English schools, but they are handicapped by the British government ban on the export of funds.

"Members of our staff have volunteered to give their services at the college in any way wished during their holidays, and some of our old boys have provided a small incidental expense fund," said Mr. McCulley. "We are hopeful that we may be of some use."

SPECIALTY STARTS IN FIFTH -- IT'S TOO LATE

By JACK PEPIATT

Poor fielding and inability to get the runners home, spelled defeat for the Office Specialty in a fast ball game played Tuesday, when the Sons of England took the long end of an 11-4 score. The Specialty left so many men on the bases and ignored so many fly-balls that even their best friends didn't tell them.

Sons of England had a big inning in the third when Albert Evans, Bill VanZant, Aub. Barker, Red Langton and Scotty Mair grabbed four bases. Mair and Gibney scored in the sixth and Stan Evans, Langton and Mair counted in the seventh. Barker scored the other run in the initial inning.

The Office Specialty didn't get into the game until the last of the fifth when Hooper and Ennis scrambled home. Ennis and Kaus four-bagged when the cows were coming home in the seventh. Stan Evans pitched a fast and accurate brand of ball all the way through and faltered only slightly in the last inning. He gave up a substantial number of hits, but always managed to quell the runs-batted-in variety.

Vandenburg, on the Specialty mound, faltered half-way through the game and was yanked for Lefty Kaus. Kaus, not along until the last two innings, but then gave up the ghost. "The big E combination of Evans, 'tito, ditto, gave their best for the winning team. Barker and Mair were powerhouses on the attack and between them got seven hits. Red Langton, known as the "big guy," collected three hits, one of them a very fancy Texas leaguer.

Lefty Kaus reached first base four times with sparkling hits and further demonstrated that he is a hitting pitcher. Pete Neufeld played a fair brand of ball at the Specialty third-base slot.

Sons of England: A. Evans, V. VanZant, A. Barker, C. Evans, S. Evans, Langton, Mair, Watts, Gibney, Pritchard.

Office Specialty: Hooper, Ennis, Craddock, Kaus, Boyd, Neufeld, Widdifield, O'Halloran, Wilson, Vandenburg, C. Bunn.

ONTARIO CABINET SECRETS

Mr. Nixon is right, but he is only half right, in what he has to say, on behalf of the Ontario government, about liquor in war-time. He uses a bit of truth to cover up a lot of untruth. Mr. Nixon says that the cabinet has discussed the liquor question and has no intention of bringing in a prohibition measure for war-time. Mr. Nixon himself was a member of the Drury government of 1919-23 which tried to prohibit the sale of liquor and Mr. Nixon says that the Drury-Rainey government, sincerely prohibitionist, had a lot of trouble. The Hepburn-Nixon government doesn't intend to have any trouble like that.

Why can't a politician face the truth? Why does he so often have to give false reasons to support his policies? Why can't Mr. Nixon say frankly: "We talked this thing over in cabinet. Mr. Hepburn wasn't present, but it wouldn't have made any difference if he had been. We get over $10,000,000 revenue out of the sale of liquor, with the help of our aggressive beer-selling policy, and with lots of liquor advertising coming into the province from Quebec and the United States we should, with luck, increase that revenue each year. We can't balance our budget now, even with the help of this huge revenue. It is therefore foolish for us to talk about prohibition of liquor sales, so that the money thus wasted could be diverted to war purposes. It didn't take us 15 minutes to reach this conclusion."

Or why couldn't he be even more courageous? Why couldn't he attempt to be constructive? "We admit that there is a lot of money wasted on liquor. This is even more unfortunate in war-time than peace-time, and we would like to divert some of this money into more useful channels. It is a problem, however, as most people will admit. It is not as easy to prohibit the sale of liquor as we once thought. We found that out during the prohibition period that followed the last war."

"Then too we must remember that while the public wastes a lot of money on liquor the public gets a nice little slice back in the form of taxes and profits exacted by the Ontario government. If we eliminated the sale of liquor we would have to find some other way of getting hold of the same or equivalent money. Isn't there some middle-way course that we could pursue? We think that there is. We think that with public co-operation, given in a patriotic way, we might greatly reduce the sale of liquor without trying to eliminate it completely."

"We can close down the beer rooms, but continue to carry on the liquor stores. We can carry on a campaign to educate the people to the injury done to health and wealth through the use of alcoholic beverages. We might experiment with a new policy of not selling liquor over the counter, but delivering all liquor to the homes of the persons who order it, and we might put an end to sales direct from the brewers to the public. We might combine with our appeal to the public to use less alcohol an appeal to give more generously to war purposes."

"It won't be easy to change established habits, but we can do it. Britons never, never, never shall be slaves to alcohol."

If Mr. Nixon would like to know what the beer rooms are doing to Ontario, let him visit the village of Sutton and talk to the people. He will find what was one of Ontario's loveliest municipalities (Sutton and Jackson's Point) now burdened and millstoned with four beverage rooms. He will find that it has become the scene of brawls and a mecca for the rough and tough. He will find that many fine patrons of this lovely village no longer go there. He will find that foolish farmers go to the village with a dollar or two to buy groceries, visit the beer room first, treat and are treated, and return home with half or none of the needed groceries. Let him talk to Sutton's leading citizens and see what they think the beer rooms have done for Sutton and Jackson's Point. Let him talk with the grocers. Mr. Nixon will learn a few things which he apparently doesn't know now. How slow Mr. Nixon is to learn compared with one Sutton hotel-man who asked to have his license cancelled after only a short experiment in selling beer. His substantial customers of the past were shunning his hotel to make way for the beverage room customers!

HOME DEFENCE PLAN

Just as soon as plans begin to take definite shape, Ottawa can help industry by giving details of its home conscription plan. How are the men to be called up, and when? For how long a period of service? In conscription for active service the practice has been, in most countries, to call up first unmarried men in the lower age groups. In a training plan there is not the same reason for taking the young fellows first (even for active service, the young fellows had the least chance to prevent the war and really should not be the first called upon). As all age groups between 18 and 45 are to be given training, a mixture of ages would bring less disturbance to industry.

For instance, if all single men of 18 to 22 are first called up for training, industry at one stroke loses errand boys, office boys, male stenographers, apprentices, and cannot replace them, because they will all be back for their jobs in three (or as may be determined) months time. And suppose all married men of from 40 to 45 should be called up at the same time—that would take an unnecessarily high proportion of business executives, foremen, highly skilled workmen from their jobs at the same time. Wouldn't it be better if the department of national defence would take some other system of selection, perhaps selecting the men for the first period of training by lottery from all liable age groups?

FARMER, FARMER, YOU'LL NEVER BE RICH

"Famine is riding hard upon the heels of slaughter and destruction in Europe," declares an anonymous guest editorial writer in the Canadian Statesman, Bowmanville. He forecasts tremendous need for Canadian agricultural production and bemoans lack of government leadership in this direction.

The guest writer, whoever he may be, writes convincingly. "We shall be feeding not only our own hard pressed centre of the empire but also the millions whom Hitler has hounded out of homes and health. Indeed, we have already begun to do so. The United States has voted $50,000,000 for relief in Europe. There are 400,000,000 people there and all of them are under the heel or in the shadow of Hitlerism. They must be fed or they shall die."

The writer quotes Hitler's "Mein Kampf" as follows: "There shall be a National Socialist civilization for the next 1000 years or—no civilization at all. Should Germany be defeated she will leave behind a world in ruins." Isn't that a pleasant sentiment from Herr Hitler?

But let's get on with the story, and the Canadian farmer's part in it. The editorial says: "We are at the beginning of feeding the evacuated civil population of the British Isles. Children first. In time it may well be more than the children. It is the simplest and best way to meet the emergency. To bring boatloads of refugees across to be fed here means a one-way trip rather than to make a multitude of trips eastward carrying foodstuffs to feed them there."

"The end is not in sight. But we do know this; that the time has come to institute a planned agricultural production; to advise as to quantities and types of foodstuffs that will be needed for the season of 1941—and thenceforward."

"We ought to know, that with the influx of children, we shall need increased production of dairy products; that the old standbys of pork and beans—the fats and proteins—must be needed."

"We need a census of the hog population as well as an acreage census in all lines of agriculture—and at once."

The article goes on to say that the vast weight of warfare rests mostly upon the backs of the farmers. "Farmers, generally, are the most wide-awake of all our population. It takes brains and initiative and management to run a farm and farmers also need capital. . . . Farm prices have fallen all along the line during the past few months; and living costs for the farmer have advanced. There is no encouragement in this."

The writer complains of the small share which the farmer gets of the retail price of foodstuffs, and cites milk and pork. He says that the milk producer gets "approximately three and a half cents per quart" out of the distributor's ten to 12 cents.

"Then we have that unholy alliance of the bacon board and the wealthy packers. These two entities split the hog profits; have rolled up, recently, hundreds of thousands of dollars which rightly belong to the farmers—and which they ought to get—for what? For capital; for farm capital, to improve and enlarge and speed up in these critical times."

Here is a parting shot: "Within the space of a few weeks we have seen wheat tumble from 90 cents to 71 cents; hogs go down from nine cents to eight cents; butter slide from 23 cents to 22 cents—and so it goes: the farmers' earnings—their capital absorbed by the plutocrats."

GOVERNMENT SUGGESTS ANTI-WEED CO-OPERATION

It is interesting to learn that the introduction to this continent of alfalfa from Turkestan was also the introduction of several annoying new weeds, which are only now beginning to get a dangerous foothold. Canada grew alfalfa for the first time 40 years ago, and imported the seed from Turkestan each year up to 1922. Russian knapweed is one of the annoying weeds which have come to Canada as stowaways. The dominion department of agriculture names eight different weeds which have come to Canada from Turkestan and southern Russia.

At least five of the eight are "definitely noxious, having most persistent perennial root systems." These weeds have not been spreading via Canadian-grown alfalfa seed but have spread their roots over whole farms and townships. The dominion department of agriculture says of getting rid of these weeds: "Both cultural and chemical means may be employed as deemed wise by those supervising. The initial step in most cases is to secure competent and earnest direction of effort, following or improving upon the best experimental advice available. Sporadic action by an individual farmer seldom covers the situation, and lacks the psychology behind concerted group action in a common cause. Far too few examples of such co-operation are before us for inspiration, but they do exist and testify to the soundness of the principle as applied to weed problems."

M. P.'s will feel the new income tax scale. In his budget speech Mr. Ralston said: "Perhaps some honorable members would be interested in knowing how the new measures will affect the position of a married man with an income of $4,000 a year. Under our existing tax he pays $84; under the new measures he will pay $355. If he has two children he will pay $223 under these new taxes compared to $45.60 under the present tax. A single man with the same income now pays $144, and under the new measures he will pay $525." The provincial tax is in addition.

From Grenoble, France, comes a report from the French navy ministry that two French air squadrons joined in a German-Italian attack on Gibraltar. Probably should be "Ignoble."

THE CHICKADEE FAMILY GROWS UP

BY RUTH DINGMAN HEBB

"How lovely the woods are in July," murmured Merry Chickadee happily, as she and Young Chips, with their seven young hopefuls, flitted among the green branches.

"There are some things I don't like, though, Mother," complained young Dee-dee. "I think those Red Squirrel children are very rude and rough, and I don't care for them at all."

"Neither do I," agreed her sister. "Whenever we are playing somewhere, they seem to come and laugh and jeer at us in that noisy chattering way they have?"

"And their cousins, the young Chipmunks, are very numerous, too," observed Young Chips, their father. "However, you children will just have to learn to put up with some of the people that you find in the woods."

"There are lots of lovely children for you to play with," Merry told them, "the young Nuthatches and the Phoebees, the Downy and Hairy Woodpeckers, and the Robins. Just ignore the Squirrel children."

"Huh, I'd rather fight with them, than ignore them," piped up Tim Chickadee. "Young Chubby Nuthatch and I had quite a battle with one of them yesterday. We pecked him quite hard two or three times, and after a while he went away from our tree."

"Listen to that beautiful, trilling Veery," said Young Chips. "It's one of the nicest things about the summer woods—the song of the Veery, or Wilson's Thrush."

"Who's that bird singing 'teacher, teacher, teacher,' Mother?" asked Blackcap, another young Chickadee. "Mercy," he exclaimed as he recovered his balance. "I nearly fell off this branch when I looked up to see if I could see who was singing over there."

"Dear, I've told you so often to cling with your feet and try to remember to do it all the time," remonstrated Merry.

"That's what comes of having a one-track mind, you can't remember to cling with your feet at the same time that you look around with your eyes," put in Young Chips, in paternal tones. "That's one of the things you young ones must learn if you expect to survive in the feathered world."

"Oh, I'm improving, really," Blackcap assured his parents. "I just forgot once in a while now. And I think I'm getting to be a pretty steady flyer, too. No jerky, uneven flapping of my wings. I'm much better than the others."

"That's what you think," chirped Dee-dee indignantly. "Just watch my graceful flying." She flew from one tree to the next in her best style.

"She really doesn't do too badly," Young Chips said admiringly. "You didn't tell who that bird was," Blackcap said, hastily changing the subject.

"Oh, it's the Ovenbird, of course," Merry told him. "I'm sure I've told you all that bird's name before, but you are all so forgetful. It has a little concealed gold patch on its head and is sometimes called the Golden-crowned Thrush."

"I suppose its nest is up in that tree," said one of the Chickadee youngsters.

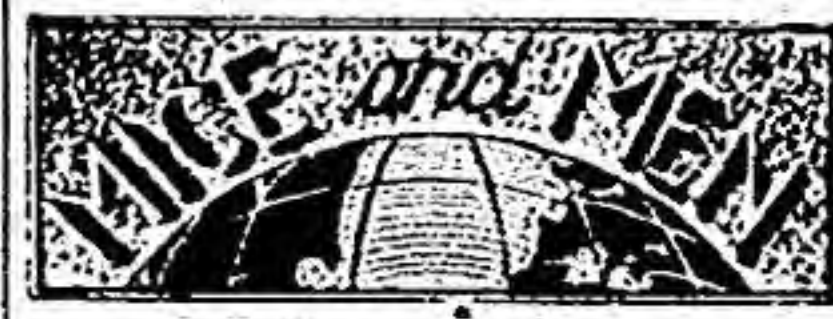

"No, it's on the ground," Young Chips told them. "It has quite a big nest, arched over the top and with a door at the side, like an oven. That's where it gets its name."

"We won't forget that," said Tim. "There's some sense to that name. Now I'm going over to see the Downy Woodpecker boys and girls. They're a little younger than we are, but they're full of pep."

"Don't stay away too long," warned Merry. "Remember what I said. For the month of July we want you to stay with the rest of the family. Then by August you ought to be able to become independent and live your own lives if you want to."

"Watch out for cats and Hawks," Young Chips called out as the young Chickadee flew away. "A mistake when you saw one of them might prove fatal."

"I'll be too smart for them," Tim assured them and disappeared among the trees.

The Common Round

SUNDAY

By Isabel Inglis Colville

A great many people have remarked in my hearing, and at sundry times and places, that "Sunday seemed such a LONG day."

"Other days," went on these people, "never seem long enough, but SUNDAY, well—it drags."

For myself, even from a child, Sunday never seemed long enough for all there was to put into it, and also, from a child, I stoutly maintained that you would know it was Sunday, even if you were in the depths of the country, by the sort of hush that seemed to fall over even normally quiet places, as well as in town or city.

It's curious—that hush—it's not like the hush that comes over nature before a storm; not the hush that comes over a grief-stricken community or a hush of fear—it's, if I may use the word—a HOLY hush.

In my childhood, I think I had an idea, that on Saturday night, after we were bathed and our fresh clothes laid out for Sunday, our collected learned and catechism recited, that God spread his hands over the sleeping earth, and said to all his creatures, "Peace be still," and on Sunday morning we awakened with that hush about us.

Since I've been older, I've imagined that the stern adherence to rigid Sunday observance, the psalms and hymns, the chants and prayers, the incense—material and spiritual—from down the centuries, came back on Sundays to pervade the very air about us, and give to our modern day something of their peace and piety.

After 6 minutes strain liquid into 2-quart container, while hot, add 1 to 1½ cups of sugar and juice of 2 lemons, strained; stir until sugar is dissolved, fill container with cold water. Do not allow tea to cool before adding cold water or liquid will become cloudy. Serve with chopped ice. The above makes 7 tall glasses.

POLICE COURT

MASH AND MOONSHINE FOUND ON FARDY FARM

Steve Poturnay and George Paddy, both residents of East Gwillimbury, were convicted on charges of illegal possession of a still when they appeared in Newmarket police court Tuesday. Paddy, who pleaded guilty to the charge, was fined $100 or six months and Poturnay, who pleaded not guilty, received the maximum penalty of $500 and six months plus six months.

County Constable Ronald Watt was the first officer to give evidence. "On June 23, accompanied by Chief Sloss, I went to the home of Steve Poturnay on the 2nd concession, East Gwillimbury, known as the 'old Fardy farm'." I had a search warrant. On arriving at the premises, I found Mrs. Poturnay at the house. She was alone. I asked her if she knew who we were; she refused to say anything. When I produced the warrant, she sat down and said nothing.

"We found 90 gallons of mash in two 45 gallon barrels in the kitchen. The two barrels were covered over with coats and bags. In a second kitchen we found a boiler. Underneath this back-kitchen floor there was a hole excavated and in this we found 14 gallons of whiskey. On making a further search, we found clothes in the house similar to ones I had seen Steve Poturnay wear. Outside the house was a truck with Steve Poturnay's name on it.

"I remained in the house while Chief Sloss phoned Sergeant Frank Smith and Constable Wm. Nichols of the R.C.M.P. They took a sample of the whiskey."

Constable Watt further stated that the whiskey was "very much like swamp whiskey both from appearance and smell." He said that the mash was made of wheat, and potatoes cut in small pieces, and was hidden in the pantry. Chief Constable Sloss corroborated this evidence.

Mrs. Rachel Denne, owner of the house in question, testified that she had rented the house to Poturnay. The defence attorney, Austen Ross, Toronto, questioned her statement and declared that the real issue at stake was whether or not Poturnay, who also owned a house between the fifth and sixth concessions, was living in Mrs. Denne's house at the time the officers raided it. Constable Nichols testified that a sample of the whiskey seized tested 83.2 per cent alcoholic content.

"Part of the floor in the rear kitchen was built up like a platform," declared Constable Nichols. "Underneath this floor were two five-gallon jugs and one four-gallon jug. There was also a metal stand for holding the mash above the cooker." He said that ashes underneath the cooker indicated that the mash had been boiled there.

Constable Nichols added that he had accompanied Sergeant Smith to search the house between the 5th and 6th, but had found "nothing that indicated that anyone was living there."

He said that he felt convinced that Poturnay and George Paddy were living together.

Thomas Reid, Toronto, a coppersmith, testified that Poturnay had bought from him a copper pipe used in the still.

After Sergeant Smith affirmed that he had found no clothing "in the shack" owned by Poturnay, which would indicate that the accused was living alone, Poturnay was brought to the stand. Crown-Attorney N. L. Mathews, K.C., questioned him for almost an hour.

Poturnay insisted that he had not been living with Paddy, had been at his house only two or three times and therefore had no knowledge of the still. He stated that he had been convicted on the same count before and "didn't want to get into trouble again."

Paddy, who previously had refused to take the stand, then said that he would like to give evidence. He said that he had had a previous conviction for car-stealing and had served a year in jail. He had asked Poturnay to help him make the whiskey.

"Steve said that he wouldn't have anything to do with it, I asked him to get me a place where I could make it myself. Poturnay had to stay at my place several times because he was working late. I make the stuff myself. I learned how to do it from people I knew. I got the boiler from a junk-man. That was the first time I had ever made alcohol." Paddy added that he had taken the copper pipe and some other parts of the still from Poturnay's house.

The crown called two witnesses, neighbors of Paddy, who said that since Paddy had rented the house, they had seen both he and Poturnay about it almost every day. They declared that they were convinced that Poturnay also lived there.

In summing up, Crown-Attorney Mathews said that he believed that the house between the fifth and sixth concessions had been "a blind." He was convinced, that Paddy "didn't know enough about it to do the job himself." The fact that two neighbors saw the accused, Poturnay, in Paddy's house, that there was a "great contrast between the evidence of Paddy and Poturnay," and that the copper pipe "fits exactly," was ample evidence that the men worked together, contended Mr. Mathews. Magistrate Mollvee withdrew an additional sentence of six months in the case of Paddy after the attorney for the defence had asked that this be granted because of his youth. However, he said that he was convinced that Poturnay had lived with Paddy and had helped him to manufacture the illegal spirits.

"My sympathies are all with Canada," declared Harry Allin, of the 6th concession East Gwillimbury, who was charged as an alien with illegal possession of a gun. An additional charge of illegal possession of drugs was dropped when Crown-Attorney Mathews explained the circumstances.

Mr. Mathews stated that Allin was an executor of the estate of a nurse who had had these drugs and he had got them 20 years ago. He said that they were still intact. "Since it was a purely technical offence, I ask that this charge be withdrawn," said Mr. Mathews.

Sergeant Barracough of the York county police gave evidence.

"On Sunday, June 2, in company with Constable Fleury, I went to the home of the accused, after having received complaints that he had a gun in his possession. He is an alien. He said that he used it to shoot ground-hogs. He admitted that a neighbor of his, Allan Graham, had bought the gun for him, so that he could shoot the groundhogs on Mr. Graham's farm as well as those on his own farm. Allin stated that the gun belonged to him and that it had been bought in Mount Albert. He said that he had made a mistake in not turning it in."

Allan Graham, a neighbor of Allin's, gave evidence as to the good character of Allin. He said that he had known the accused for 30 years, and that they had shared ownership of the gun. "The gun has been kept at my place since the war," added Mr. Graham.

Allin testified that he is a German, but has been in Canada since 1904. He is a market gardener.

"Didn't you know that aliens were supposed to register their guns?" asked his worship.

"Yes, I was careless about that."

"It is a fine time to think of that now."

Howard Toole, another neighbor of Allin's, said that he had always found Allin "upright and reliable." "I have heard him condemn Hitler and this was before the war," declared Mr. Toole.

"I am not asking for the maximum penalty in this case, but I would like a conviction," said Crown-Attorney Mathews. "A conviction is desired not only to impress upon him that he was wrong, but also to set an example for others. Allin is quite well-liked around here."

Allin was fined $10 and costs and the gun was ordered confiscated. Elton Armstrong, Armitage, was fined $5 and costs on a charge of careless driving. Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson testified that he had investigated a collision that occurred between the Armstrong car and another vehicle. Mr. Armstrong had been over the centre line, in an effort to avoid broken glass lying on the pavement.

John C. Carr, of Newmarket, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of illegal possession.

"On June 22," declared Constable Ferguson, "I was proceeding south on highway No. 11, at Huron St. I came upon the scene of a slight accident."

"Carr had struck the rear of a bread truck. On investigation, I found a pint of beer in the car. He had been drinking, but I don't think this would affect his driving."

"He was weaving on the road as if he couldn't make up his mind whether to pass the next cars," testified Constable Ferguson in the case of Fred Walter, of Toronto, charged with careless driving. "He was in a fatigued condition and said that he had been to a party the night before."

The officer said that the accused had driven "well into Aurora" at a speed of 50 m.p.h. He was fined $10 and costs.

Harper Price, of Newmarket, was fined $6.50 for careless driving. Constable Watt. On a similar charge, Alvin Harman, of Sutton, was fined $5 and costs. Constable Hill.

Charged with speeding, Charles H. Kaye, of Bracebridge, was fined $6 and costs. John H. Menary, of Toronto, speeding. Constable Ferguson, fined $5 and costs, and Donald Bruce MacLeod, of Montreal, speeding. Constable Ferguson, fined $10 and costs. William V. Fry, of Toronto, dangerous driving. Constable Ferguson, was fined $5 and costs.

A STATEMENT ON FORD WAR WORK IN CANADA

This Company is in the war to the full limit of its resources. Until the British Empire is victorious, until the battle for freedom of nations and liberty of peoples is won, we have pledged all the vast manufacturing facilities of our Canadian and overseas affiliated companies to the service of the Empire.

We regard this to be our simple duty as a Canadian institution, one of the industrial resources of the Dominion. The 8,400 employees in our plants as well as our widespread dealer and service organization from coast to coast are Canadian. The Company's shareholders include a large proportion of Canadian investors. No one individual, family or company has a majority control of our shares.

For these reasons, aside from our deep feeling of loyalty to the Empire and its high purposes, it is fitting that Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited should give whole-hearted support to the national war effort.

From the very beginning this has been our course. Even before war was declared, in co-operation with officers of the Department of National Defence, we laid in our plant the groundwork of military production. Since conflict became a reality we have given our orders precedence over everything else. More than fifty per cent of our production is in vehicles for military use and this percentage is increasing rapidly.

We are now engaged in supplying approximately 35,000 motorized vehicles of many types, of which 10,000 are for the Canadian government and 25,000 for other Empire governments.

We are constructing at our own expense a $700,000 plant addition to provide facilities for the building of Universal machine gun carriers of which we have undertaken to deliver fifty a week to the Canadian government as soon as production can be started. This addition will also enable us to increase production of other types of military vehicles. Our affiliated companies with plants in South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, India and Malaya are similarly engaged in Empire service.

Beyond our manufacturing facilities we have been fortunately able to contribute skilled man-power. From our Canadian and overseas organization, engineers and men with special training in transport and other lines are rendering valuable service.

Major adjustments in our business have been necessary through loss of export trade and because of domestic taxation. We have made these adjustments cheerfully. Our one concern now is the successful prosecution of this war so that people of all nations may again be able to work in freedom and peace.

M. C. Campbell
PRESIDENT

FORD MOTOR COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

Statement in Parliament by the Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Munitions and Supply

"The president of the Canadian Company has shown perhaps as keen a desire to assist in Canada's war effort as any citizen of this Dominion has done. His corporation since the outbreak of the war has done and is doing very important work for Canada's war effort, in the way of building motor transports and Universal carriers. The company has placed itself entirely in the hands of the government as to the terms of the contract which it has had."

"A contract, providing for a fixed price as low as we could find any basis for asking, was worked out; an overriding provision was inserted that the books of the company would be audited and if the stipulated price produced a profit more than a very low percentage indeed, that price would be scaled down accordingly. In other words, the work of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, its attitude toward the war, and its ability to assist in Canada's war effort, have been so far as I have been able to observe, beyond criticism."

Statement in Senate by Senator Raoul Dandurand, Government Leader in the Senate

"Ford Motor Company of Canada is doing its utmost to serve the interests of the country, the War Supply Board and the Government."

Statement in the Senate by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative Leader in the Senate

"They (Ford dealers in Canada) are numbered in the hundreds. And the number of employees of these dealers is very large. The ramifications are tremendous. For all the purposes concerning us, the company is a Canadian concern, and I can add to the assurance given by the honourable leader of the House my own feeling that there are no better Canadians than those at the head of the Ford Motor Company of Canada and throughout that Company's organization. They will assist us to the utmost in our war work."

Women's Auxiliary Motor Service

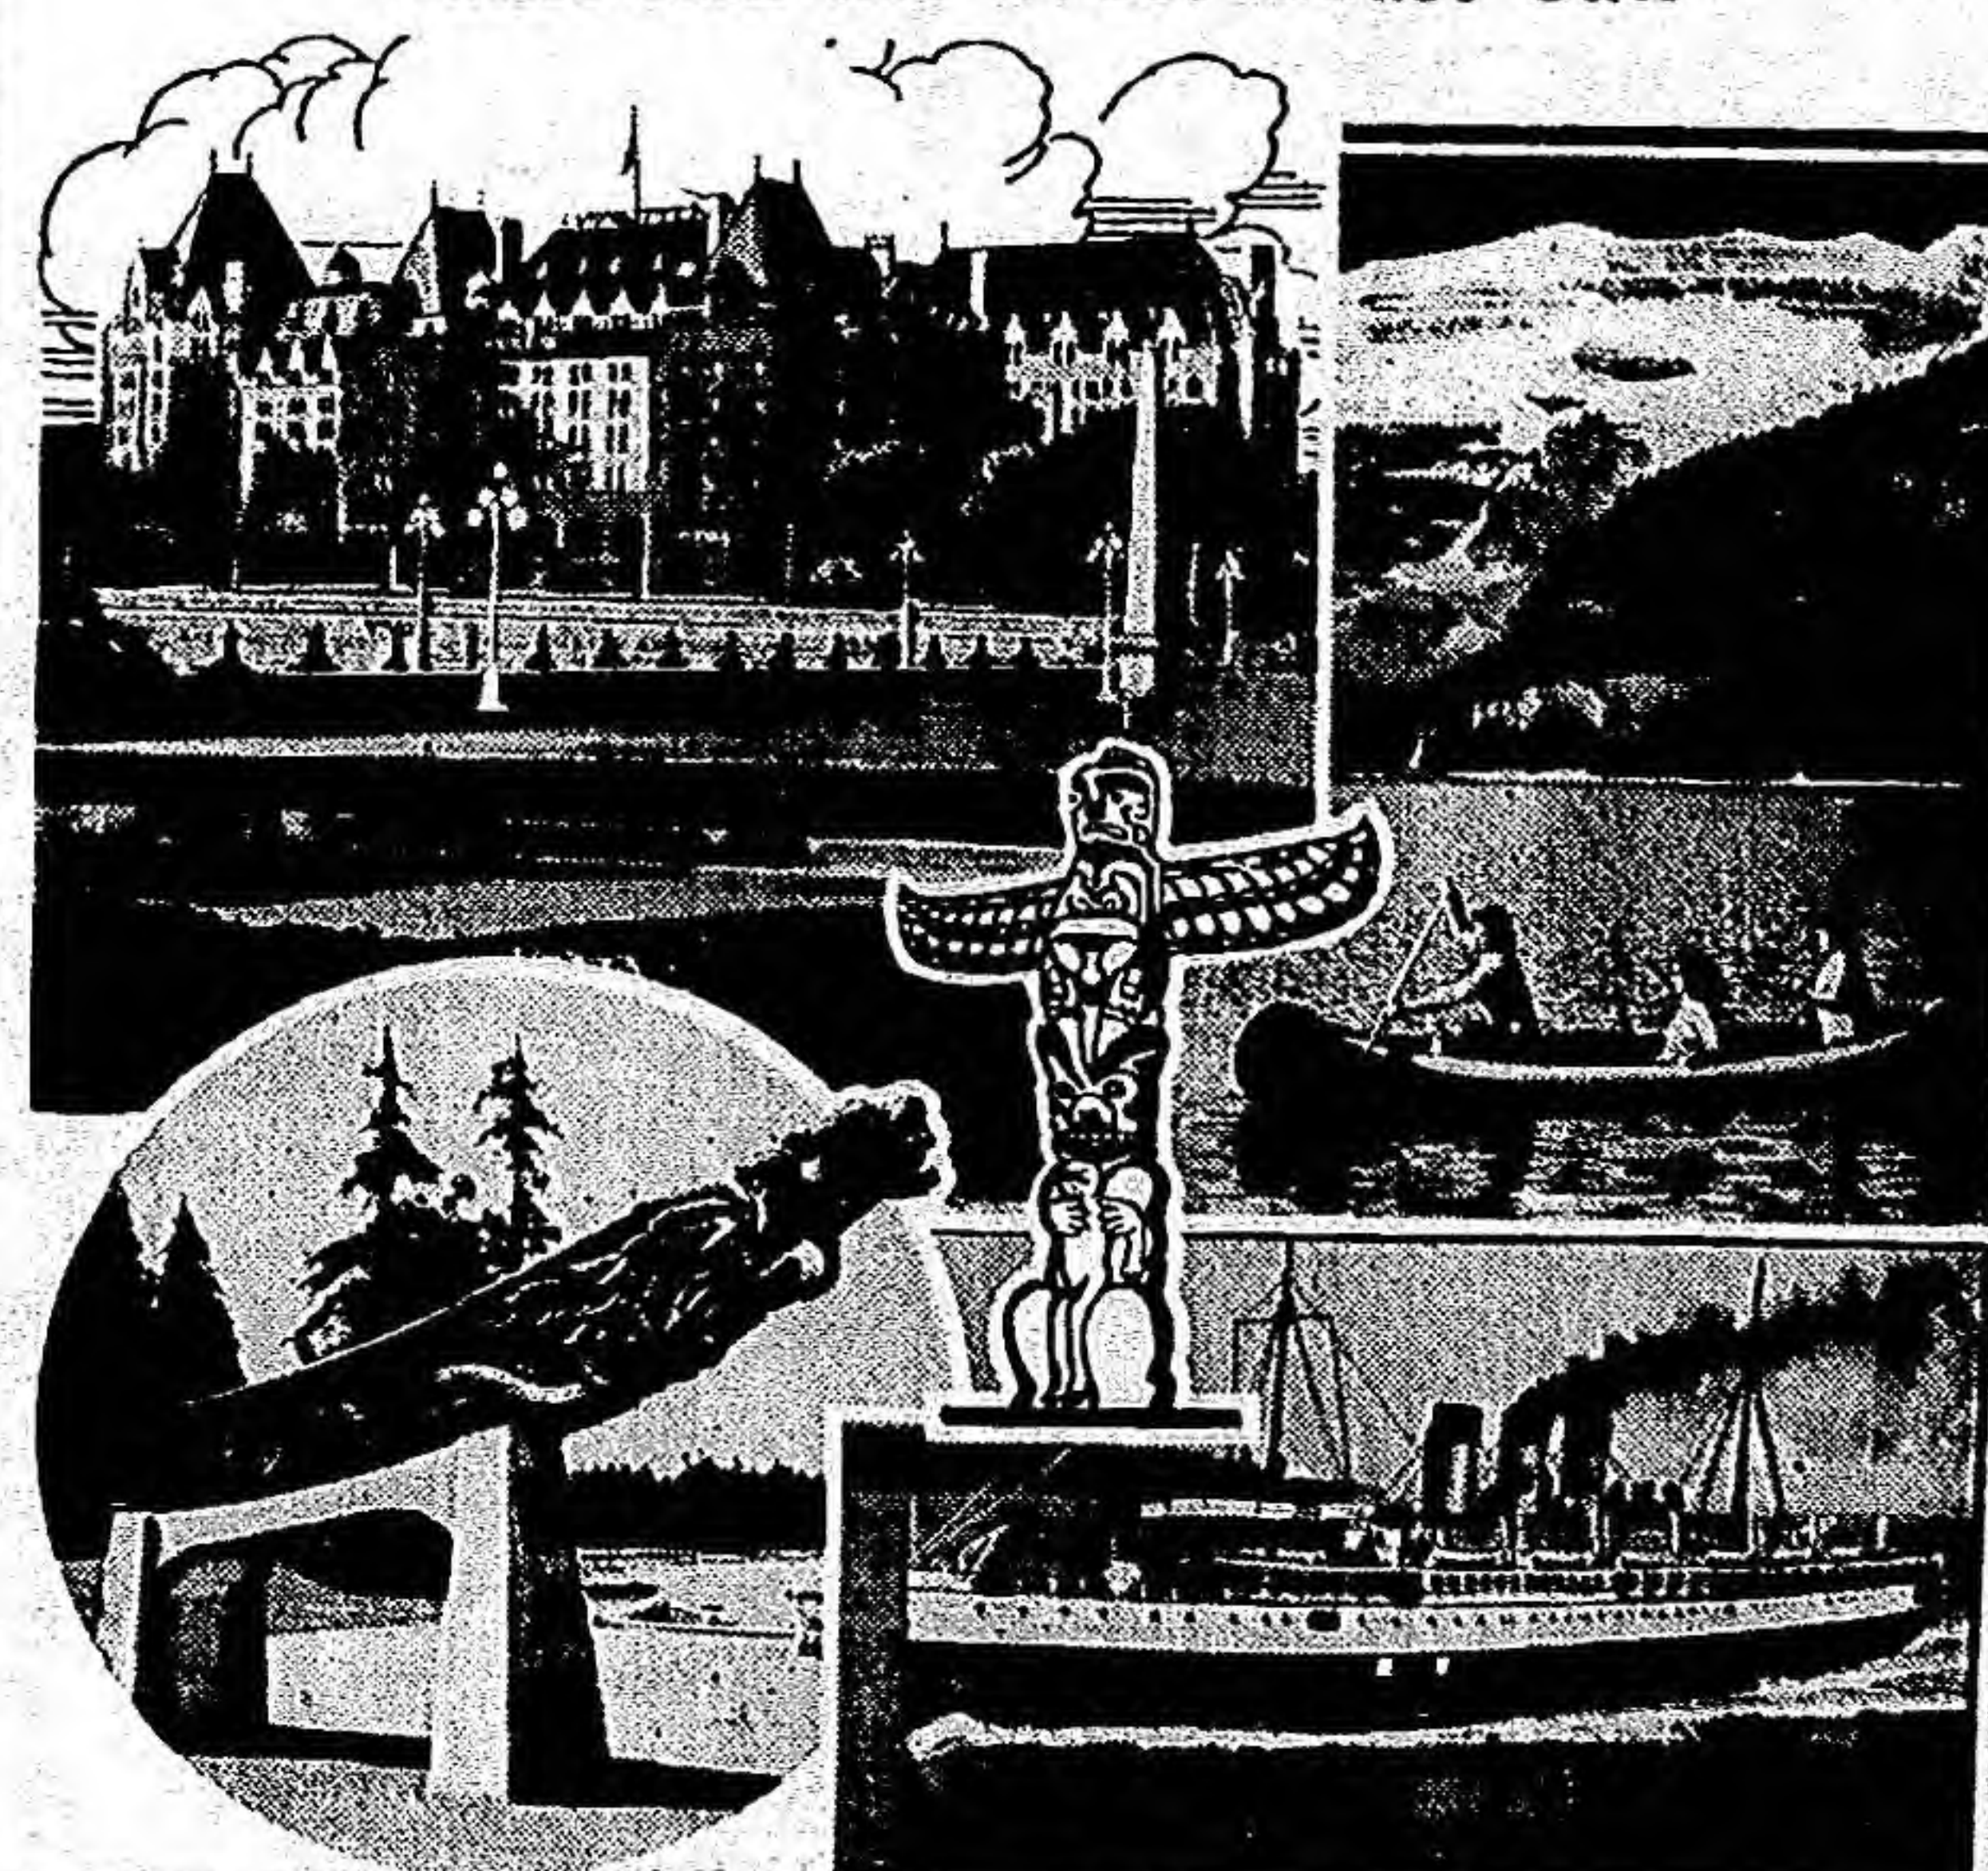

Early in the war the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, organized free training courses for women in the care and operation of motor vehicles for possible war service. 284 such classes have been conducted, with an enrollment of 7,343. The number who have completed the eight-week course is 3,473, with 2,656 now under instruction and 1,214 enrolled in new classes about to start. All instruction and equipment has been furnished by Ford dealers and the Company without charge.

Banff and the West Coast Call

The Canadian Rockies and British Columbia are the North American Continent's vacation land this year. Banff, Lake Louise, the several charming Canadian Pacific lodges of the Rockies, Vancouver, Victoria and the Canadian Pacific West Coast boats are enjoying the greatest popularity of their history. With the official opening of the holiday season early in June, Americans and Canadians started coming by the hundreds in a holiday stream which, reservations show, will continue to gain in force through the season.

Many special entertainments planned for Banff, Lake Louise and the other Rocky Mountain resorts centre at Banff and include the Indian Days celebration, July 18-21; annual Alpine Club of Canada camp in Glacier Creek Valley, July 11-29; Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, July 26-30; Sky-Line Trail Hikers, August 2-5; Banff Golf Week, August 18-21; and Banff School of Fine Arts, August 1-31. The Stampede at Calgary, Canada's greatest "Wild West Show," will be from July 8 to 13. Golf, fishing, tennis, swimming, boating and the like are all-summer activities which need no special dates.

Farther west, Vancouver, Victoria and other Pacific Coast centres are holiday headquarters for hundreds of visitors. Victoria, which last winter proved to be visiting hundreds its right to the title of "Canada's Evergreen Playground," is showing equal popularity as a summer resort. Vancouver has had an unusual early-season influx of visitors. Cruising to Alaska by the Canadian Pacific "Princess" steamers is so popular this year that three special 11-day cruises as well as many regular nine-day cruises promise to attract capacity crowds. Other Pacific Coast cruises are finding equal favor.

The above pictures, typical of holidays in Western Canada, show an Indian totem pole; the Empress Hotel, Victoria, B.C.; canoeing on Lake Louise, second only to Banff as tourist capital of the Rockies; one of the famous "Princess" steamers and the figurehead of the first "Empress of Japan," now a historic monument at Vancouver. The "Empress of Japan" plied Pacific waters for 31 years, from 1891 to 1922.

Oshawa Club Takes Most Wins In Cycling Tussle

HANSON WINS ONE-MILE
NOVICE, CHAPMAN
DOESN'T COMPETE

Minus the services of their ace rider, Cliff Chapman, whom rumor has it may retire from competition, Aurora cyclists were only able to take one event out of four from Joe Victor's Oshawa club at Cousins' track on Tuesday night.

Pugh and Pringle were, as usual, the Oshawa stars, but the motor city boys showed a new dash in Frankie Ball, who was a row in the short sprints. Jim Hanson and Norm. Foster matched wits with the visitors, but backed just a wee bit of finesse and experience.

Hanson took down the one-mile novice in 2:35% and close behind him came Tom Reeside, Johnny O'Connor and Bob Benille, the Oshawa riders being completely outclassed in this event.

In the three-mile miss and out race Lance Pugh, the Ontario champion, came home in front in 8:21, his mate, Harold Pringle, was second, with Norm. Foster, Aurora junior champion, in third position.

The 440 event went to Frank Ball of Oshawa in 34% seconds. Pugh and Pringle and Jim Hanson of Aurora followed close behind.

In the half-mile Pringle scored in 1:31% with Ball second and Jim Hanson and Don Judd of the local club third and fourth.

Following the race the visitors, including some riders of the fair sex of the Oshawa club, were entertained at a buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Offord, Wells St.

Aurora pays a return visit to Oshawa on July 28.

DOWN THE CENTRE

Harry Rouse pitched a swell game on Tuesday night and had some of the Newmarket sluggers tied up completely. Tom Birchard played one of his best games against the Redmen and then came more bad news for Len Simmons, as it was announced Birchard would be transferred to Nobel by his employers. Tommy never really got going here, but he was tops with his team-mates and the fans and was coming into shape fast.

McComb took over the batting leadership from Michaniuk with .457. Frankie is now at .424. Heaney, Birchard, Shore and Hodgins all boosted their averages, Shore finally getting over the .300 mark, where he rightly belongs. Bob Peters lingered in the canal-town for fire practice but came rushing to the Aurora scene too late to be of much use.

Tomlinson, who filled in at the first sack, seemed ill at ease.

Don Glover, the southpaw chucker who performs for the Redmen in the Simcoe loop and for Sharon in the Lake Simcoe circuit, recently had his delivery ruled as illegal in a game against Vandoor by Umpire-in-chief Charlie Cunningham. His footwork will probably be more closely tagged in the major league from now on.

Barrie failed to show up for their game against Richmond Hill on Tuesday night, and Umpire Yake awarded the game to Richmond Hill. Barrie were not represented at the league meeting on Friday night, and it is said they should not play with the four survivors in another series. Aurora play there tonight and McComb, who has been pitching nice ball in the town league, might just be named starting hurler, although we expect to see Shore on the firing line.

Tuesday night Barrie came back for the return game here, which should fill the park if anything can induce the Aurora fans to loosen up on the dimes. Too many people who should be cash customers are still vaulting the fence or dropping around for the game when they figure the tax is off.

The crowd on Tuesday for once kept off the playing field, and the fielders and umpires had a chance to see everything. Town council, we thought, were to supply ropes to keep back the crowd, but to date there haven't been any in sight. Every other park but Richmond Hill is properly roped off and the crowd kept well back. With play-offs coming up soon it is time something was done here in this regard.

July Jottings
A combination of industrial let-down and the lure of the unknown has dealt the local softball club several nasty jolts, which Manager Len Simmons is doing his best to meet. Most serious loss was the departure of Jim Lowe and Wilf. White on Monday for northern Ontario, pitcher and first-baseman of the local club. Previous to this, Grant Cook, catcher, had left for Toronto to accept a job at higher wages, and Harry Pearce, outfielder, has been gone nearly a month. Most of these boys will be back later in the year, but too late for the softball series and without regular play they would not be much use to the team.

In addition, Lyall Sparks is summering at Belle Ewart, "Nuggets" Shore, the Kettleby schoolmaster, is at home in his native Woodbridge, and Frank Michaniuk, until he resumes work, like the above two boys may not be available for every game. Pattenden, Rouse, Milne and McKenzie will help fill the breach, while Bob Hillis and Eric Bilborough of the juniors may also see action.

Thus Aurora will have to call on veterans from the retired list to keep going, or at least field a team to provide competition. However, don't sell the team short. It's often when things look worst that a team will suddenly get hot and beat down at a terrific clip.

Lacrosse is giving a summer-time outlet for athletic activity to many performers well-known to Aurora fans. Tommy Burlington and his team-mate, Johnston, of the Greys, are both totting a stick for the Sounders' senior B team. Harvey Lebar, formerly of Bradford, is also with them. Doug Gillespie is performing for his home town, Orangeville, and has as team-mates Hec and Don. McKenzie from Alliston, who once were with Bradford, Binsell, who played hockey for Milton, is also with the Dufferins.

Don Wilson is, of course, with Orillia seniors, as is Bucko McDonald of the Leafs. Swales, the Midland defence star, is playing junior for Orillia Terriers.

Alf. Stong of Richmond Hill recently filled in for Tott in the Fergus nets, but it is not thought he will play regularly, although if Alf gets back to form he'll be as good as there in the loop.

Weston have a junior team just breaking into the game and Ted Grosskurth, Bridgeman, Jones, Hyllton and Cameron, all junior C stars last year, are turning in nice games. Brampton, as we stated before, have "Fat" James, and with them too is Benny Harris, well-known around Richmond Hill and points south. W. T. "Bill" Buchanan, who was once station agent here, is president of the Barrie lawn bowling club, one of the most progressive clubs of the district.

Amid a setting of ferns, tall standards of delphiniums and Canterbury bells, a lovely summer wedding took place on Saturday at Aurora United church, when Elinor Elizabeth Webster, daughter of Mrs. Charles Webster and the late Mr. Webster of Aurora, became the bride of Harry Clayton Steels of Islington, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steels.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. J. Thompson, while Mrs. Hollingshead Young of Newmarket presided at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Andrew Webster, wore a gown of white net over satin, with touches of lace, fashioned on princess lines, with sweetheart neckline and long, flowing train. Her veil was held in place with a hand-wrought silver bandeau and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white sweet peas.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Webster, as maid of honor, wearing hyacinth net over taffeta, with full skirt and short puff sleeves and carrying an arm bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Frederick Olson, sister of the groom, Mrs. Donald Andrews and Miss Beatrice Webster, all gowned alike in coral net over taffeta and carrying arm bouquets of coral roses with matching flowers in their hair.

Mr. Gordon Armstrong acted as best man, while the ushers were Mr. Frederick Olson, Mr. Donald Andrews, and Mr. George Hull.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Yonge St. north. Receiving with the bride and groom were her mother, Mrs. Chas. Webster, in a gown of heavenly blue triple sheer with large blue hat and wearing a corsage of roses, and the sister of the groom, Mrs. William Hey, who wore dusty pink lace with white accessories.

The groom is a graduate of Western University, London, Ont. For travelling the bride chose a printed frock with white accessories. Following a wedding trip to be spent in Haliburton county they will reside at Islington, where the groom is a member of the staff of Etobicoke high school.

Presentations and telegrams were received from as far afield as Winnipeg, Detroit and Chicago, while just before the ceremony

There were four children born to her, three sons and one daughter, Mrs. T. Hamer of Aurora, Dr. Gershon Howard of Toronto, and Rev. Allen Howard, Presbyterian minister at Upergrove, and a son who died. There are six grandchildren.

All of Mrs. Howard's family lived to a ripe old age, her father being almost 90 when he died. Late Mrs. Howard has read "The Story of Kettleby," by Mayor J. M. Walton, which recalls to her many incidents of early days in King township.

"I could tell you many funny things that happened," said Mrs. Howard.

PLAN GALA RED CROSS FAIR FOR JULY 23

On Tuesday, July 23, commencing in the afternoon, Aurora Red Cross will hold a community fair in the town park. There will be booths and games of every description for both young and old and plenty of food available for the most jaded appetite.

There will be a feature softball match, a concert by the Aurora boys' band, bingo, and to conclude it all, a gala street dance in front of the high school. Reserve the date now, Tuesday, July 23.

IRONMEN DEFEAT ELORA RIVALS 9-4

Proving too strong in the pinches, and backed by a nice pitching performance by Joint McComb, the Ironmen of old Aurora proved too good for the New Aurora pignions from Elora in a Fleury-Bissell inter-plant softball fixture on Saturday afternoon in the town park. The score was 9-4.

For the first three innings the game saw-sawed back and forth, Aurora dukes getting three runs in their half of the third, to establish what proved to be a safe lead. The final score was 9-4 for Wilson's warriors.

Gordon Anthony, Syd. Lustic and Tom Rogers, all former local players, appeared in the visiting line-up and were subject to considerable ribbing from the fans and their former team-mates. Tim Holder did a Happy Watson act from the third base side which kept the crowd in an uproar, but nobody knows yet for whom he was really hollering.

McComb struck out 14, taking the side in the second and sixth inning. He also homered in the first with one on. Wes. Heaney and Frank Clubine were the main guns in the Aurora offense while Buck Atkinson and Dick Sutton made feature fielding plays. W. Willis, Jr., and Hammond, the bespectacled hurler, were the best for the main plant.

Following the game the local boys entertained the players of both teams, officials, plant heads and visitors in an affair that was an epic for hospitality and good fellowship.

Central Committee Is Set Up To Co-ordinate All Town's War Work

B. E. HAMBLIS IS CHAIRMAN, OTHER ORGANIZATIONS REPRESENTED

NAME EXECUTIVE

At an enthusiastic and representative meeting in the town hall last Friday evening, Aurora citizens formed the Aurora War Activities Committee, a committee designed to unify, direct and encourage all war effort of every type in town.

Mayor J. M. Walton took the chair and along with Councillor Dr. G. A. C. Guntton outlined to the meeting the reason the town council had called representatives of the various organizations together and the aims and objects of the committee.

"This committee will not mean the disbanding of any of the organizations, nor will it interfere with such bodies as the Red Cross, but it will co-ordinate all the forces in town into one united effort and will prevent overlapping," he said.

"We want to prosecute the war effort to our maximum capacity and we can only do so if we are united," said Dr. G. A. C. Guntton. "I hope the committee we form will provide real leadership for

Newmarket Redmen Beaten By Local Hurlers 7 to 5

ROUSE STARS ON THE MOUND AS AURORANS HOLD EARLY LEAD

Taking advantage of Newmarket misuses and hitting in the spots, Aurora softballers backed up a neat pitching effort by Harry Rouse on Tuesday night to score a 7-5 win over their old rivals, the Newmarket Redmen.

Rouse, making his first start of the season, handled himself with plenty of poise and showed lots of stuff. He was entirely unruffled in the pinches and it was then that he achieved most of his strike-out victims, eight Redmen biting the dust by the swing and miss route.

Wes. Niles for the visitors displayed plenty of speed, but was

DEED PRAYER NOW

ORANGEMEN TOLD

The Union Jack is composed of three crosses, those of St. George, St. Andrew and St. Patrick, and it is a living symbol of all of the cross of Christ—symbol of sacrifices made in the past—a symbol of freedom of thought, speech and religious belief and worship," Rev. E. W. Worrall of King said in his sermon Sunday evening to members of the Orange order who attended Trinity Anglican church. "We need prayer now as never before, the totalitarian states have made progress because we have often forgotten the significance of the cross and have allowed confusion to come into our thoughts and actions."

He stated that the principles of Orangemen were those which had made the British people great in the past, and that if everyone carried out his or her own obligation that would do much to restore the principles of duty and sacrifice so badly needed at this time.

"Stand by your order, stand by your faith, stand by your country, stand by the Cross of Christ," Rev. Mr. Worrall urged.

"Previous to the service the members of L.O.L. 643, Queen Mary L.O.B.A., county officials and 60 children from the True Blue Orphanage at Elgin Mills paraded to the church headed by the Aurora boys' band.

Miss A. A. Ferguson had a delightful surprise on Tuesday when a carload of friends came from Newmarket. Mrs. Chas. Lewis, Miss Anna, and a dark-eyed granddaughter came and brought Miss Ferguson's aunt, Mrs. J. F. Scott, Mrs. Nash and her small daughter from town. It was a most delightful visit.

The W.M.S. open meeting, which was postponed from June because of Eversley garden party, is to be held on Tuesday night, July 16, in Eversley church at 8 p.m., standard time. Rev. J. C. Ross of Bolton, a popular lecturer, will show slides of views taken in the British Isles, along with his lecture. He will also sing two solos. A full program is being arranged, and a large attendance is desired.

the council believed. The new system will become effective next year.

At the same time the township assessment will be switched from the first four months of the year to the last four months, to swing into step with many other York county municipalities and to secure "many advantages," according to a resolution moved by Councillors E. M. Legge and L. B. Goodfellow.

A resolution moved by Councillors Wm. E. Barker and L. B. Goodfellow was as follows: "That we members of the council of the corporation of the township of King and our employees pledge our loyalty to our king and country and the British empire, and we request any resident of the township who knows of any disloyal subject or anyone who speaks disloyally of king and country that they immediately notify the reeve in order that any traitors may be brought to justice."

The council took steps to collect from all delinquent dog owners. Constable Gus Farquhar will look after all untaxed dogs west of the 6th concession and Constable Maurice Hayward will look after Yonge St. to the 6th. The constables are to make one visit to the delinquent owners and failing collection are to have the residents summoned to court.

The clerk, on motion by Councillors E. M. Legge and Burnell Graham is to check up the signatures on the petition re ditches on the 3rd concession on the Holland marsh and report to the council on their validity.

The clerk and the solicitor were instructed on the motion of Councillors Wm. E. Barker and E. M. Legge to prepare a new rubbish disposal by-law, specifying dumping places and penalizing those who break the by-law.

The council returned $5 to the county, half of $10 collected from an individual as reimbursement for hospitalization paid by the county and township.

The council paid $48 to the Ontario Gazette for advertising 1940 tax sales.

The township paid $13.12 to the county for June indigent hospitalization.

Another resolution provided that non-residents bringing a dog into the township for any length of time are liable for dog tax.

A by-law assuming control of a further 20 rods of Maple Grove Ave. was read and adopted. The township earlier assumed control of the easterly 30 rods of Maple Grove Ave.

A by-law provided for licensing, regulating and governing junk-shops, junk-yards, second-hand shops and dealers in second-hand goods.

Another by-law established a uniform system of pay for the services and mileage of the township constables.

The next council meeting will be held at Nobleton on Aug. 3 at 9 a.m.

WESTERN HOSPITALITY

An eastern lady, a strict disciple of Emily Post, touring the West, was struggling with a cup of hot coffee in the depot lunch counter before her train pulled out. A couple of stools away a cowboy noted her plight.

"Here, ma'am," he offered, solicitously, "you take my cup of coffee. It's already sauced and blowed."

SILAKE

"My girl has remarkable taste."

"My girl isn't so good-looking either."

Vital Omission

The doctor examined him twice a year. He wore goggles when it rained. He slept with his window open. He stuck to a diet with plenty of fresh vegetables. He got at least eight hours' sleep every night. He never smoked, drank, or lost his temper. He did his daily dozen. He was all set to live to be a hundred.

The funeral took place yesterday. He had forgotten about motor cars.

The beautiful and spacious rose garden and lawns at Strathdrie, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce MacKinnon, presented an attractive scene on Friday when a fair was held in aid of the Red Cross work of Roche's Point.

Hundreds of flowers vied with each other for color and beauty, and there were many colorful decorations throughout the grounds. The day was perfect, resulting in large crowds attending the fair, both afternoon and evening.

In a very brief address, the president, Mrs. A. J. Forte, thanked Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon for the use of their gardens, and then introduced Dr. D. E. Robertson of Toronto, who opened the fair.

Games, contests, movies and races kept the crowd busy throughout the day. Other attractions which did a thriving business were a rummage sale, novelty stall, a home-made candy booth in the charge of the Girl Guides and a Mexican table. Refreshments were served at the sandwich bar and in the tea garden. Fortune tellers were kept busy.

The winners of the contest were announced: dressed baby doll, Mrs. W. R. Clark of Elmhurst; permanent wave, Miss Rosemary Balfour; photograph, Miss M. Coplestone. High tea served from six to eight p.m., followed by dancing, brought the fair to a happy and successful conclusion.

The local executive appreciated the many donations and help received from both friends and local members of the branch, which added materially to the success of the event.

Net proceeds amounted to $967.38, of which $63 was made by Elmhurst auxiliary branch at their home-made baking stall.

NORTH GWILLIMBURY
ASK I. O. U'S FROM HOSPITAL INDIGENTS

North Gwillimbury township council met at Belhaven on Tuesday, July 2. All the members were present.

H. Mundy waited on the council regarding weed cutting at Elmhurst Beach. He also extended to the council an invitation to attend the opening of the Elmhurst Pavilion on the evening of Sunday, July 7. The matter of removing dead trees and brush, which menaced traffic on the lakeshore road, was brought to the attention of the council by Mr. Kerman. He and two of the council were appointed to go into this with the road superintendent.

Notice of an organization meeting of the Federation of Agriculture, to be held at Newmarket on July 15, was read to the council.

Two letters were read to the council concerning motorcycle police patrol. These did not change the attitude of the members in regard to the matter. Reeve Hopkins read the draft of a letter setting forth the views of the majority of the council on traffic regulation and giving their reasons for voting against the motorcycle proposal.

This letter was signed by all the members of the council except Mr. Babb, and a resolution was passed that a copy of it be forwarded in reply to the various letters received by the council concerning the motorcycle idea. It was also decided that copies be sent to Newmarket and Toronto papers.

The expense incurred by the municipality for hospital accounts being placed on the shoulders of the county and township caused the council some concern. It was decided that all parties asking the township to assume their hospital costs should be asked to enter into an agreement to repay as and when they were able to do so.

Transportation to and from the city for those requiring medical attention was discussed, and it was recommended that where conditions permitted these parties should travel by bus instead of a car being employed for the trip.

In view of the amount of work involved by the relief officer's duties, it was decided that he should be paid an additional $5 per month from May 1 to Dec. 31. Councillor Harry Babb was the only one to vote against the proposal.

Accounts passed for payment were as follows: Dr. Beattie, attendance M. O. H. convention, $30; R. L. Boag, $35.30; Wainman's Jewelry, $7; P. W. Mahoney, insurance premiums, $227.50; Hospital for Sick Children, $2; Carl Morton, $75; J. E. Stevenson, stamps, $8; E. Comer, refund dog tax, $2; A. Rye, $2.50;

Dr. Beattie, medical services, $56.50; road voucher No. 7, $530.42; Geo. Huntley, $12; E. Winch, $10.

FORD OF CANADA AIDS WAR EFFORT

Ford Motor Co. of Canada has operated in Canada for 35 years. Its shares are owned by Canadians, Englishmen, Americans and people in several other countries. The company's shareholders include a large proportion of Canadians. No one individual, family, or company has a majority control of our shares.

The manufacturing plant in Windsor, Ont., is the largest automobile plant in Canada. It is ideally fitted for the manufacture of many types of motorized transport. Currently more than 50 per cent of its production is in vehicles for military purposes for the Canadian and other empire governments. This percentage is increasing, and will be increased, to any point required.

War orders have taken priority over all other work from the outset of the war and will continue to do so.

The company employs some 8,400 Canadian workers in its factories and offices in Windsor, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver, and in its sales and service branches in Saint John, Montreal, Regina and Calgary. These people earn their entire livelihood from this business. Many thousands more in the factories and offices of manufacturers, who supply us with materials, and parts earn a substantial part of their income because of our operations. There are more than 700 dealers in Canada employing approximately 6,000 people to sell and service Ford products. All told, including dependents, an estimated 100,000 Canadians benefit through employment created by this company. Many more benefit indirectly.
